Interviews

- ◆ Councillor Boehm wanted to give the RM information before the Blucher Aberdeen Fire Dept showed up for meeting.
- ◆ Graham White mentioned to Francis that the civic addressing would help and named roads would be very helpful for fire dept and first responders.
- ◆ Blucher Aberdeen Fire Dept – Fire Chief Mike Steckhan, Secretary Joan Steckhan and First Responder Gail McLeod in attendance
 - ◆ Civic Addresses

- ◆ Chief Steckhan asked the RM to speed up the process of getting civic addresses as there are lots of issues with finding properties and Medavic (ambulances) can't find the property either.
- ◆ Reeve Blair Cummins said the RM can't figure out a good system to go with so that is why is not done yet.
- ◆ Councillor Dale Chysyk said too many people are relying on their phones and we need to educate people how to read a map and know their legal description.
- ◆ First Responder Gail McLeod said PA Dispatch can only go by what the caller gives them.
- ◆ She mentioned that Aberdeen is using a civic address system and it works fine, Aberdeen named the road and then another organization assigns house numbers.
- ◆ Councillor Senger said maybe the RM should work on a system like Aberdeen
- ◆ Chief Mike Steckhan said if it works for Aberdeen why wouldn't we contact them and when we do the signs make the writing bigger than Aberdeen.
- ◆ Councillor Chysyk mentioned that maybe we need to contact PA Dispatch and find out which system they prefer for civic addressing so everyone is on the same page
- ◆ Chief Mike Steckhan did thank the RM for clearing snow from the fire department parking lot as they responded to a fire at Sunset Estates and were able to get the equipment out right away.

Civic
Addressing

350-2022 - Boehm
